Task2 - Build Your Student Digital Portfolio

- Research gate: A platform where students, professors and researchers publish papers in the field of their study. It serves as an important learning tool for students as it keeps us updated on the recent most industry and academic trends and discoveries.
- LinkedIn: A platform for networking. It helps in connecting students with worldwide opportunities like internships, pursuing higher studies and many more.
- GitHub: A platform where we can create repositories for our projects. By uploading projects, we can practice our coding skills as well as by making projects we are also enhancing our CV.
